POLICY:

The Company has framed this Policy for determination of materiality of an event or information for the purpose of timely disclosure of the same to the Stock Exchange(s) and to assist the relevant employees of the Company in identifying any potential material event or information and reporting the same to the authorized Key Managerial Personnel, in terms of sub-regulation (5) of Regulation 30, for determining the materiality of the said event or information and for making the necessary disclosures to the stock exchanges. And to ensure uniformity in the Company's approach towards making disclosures of materiality of events or information.

REPORTING:

1. Events / information specified in Para A of Part A of Schedule III of the Listing Regulations shall be disclosed without application of materiality guidelines.
2. Materiality has to be determined on a case to case basis depending on specific facts and circumstances relating to the information/event mentioned at Para B of Part A of Schedule III of Listing Regulations. In order to determine whether a particular event/information is material in nature, the Company shall consider the criteria(s) mentioned below:
 - a. the omission of an event or information, which is likely to result in discontinuity or alteration of event or information already available publicly; or
 - b. the omission of an event or information is likely to result in significant market reaction if the said omission came to light at a later date; or
 - c. the omission of an event or information, whose value or the expected impact in terms of value, exceeds the lower of the following:
 - i. two percent of turnover, as per the last audited consolidated financial statements of the listed entity;
 - ii. two percent of net worth, as per the last audited consolidated financial statements of the listed entity, except in case the arithmetic value of the net worth is negative;
 - iii. five percent of the average of absolute value of profit or loss after tax, as per the last three audited consolidated financial statements of the listed entity;
 - d. In case where the criteria specified in sub-clauses (a), (b) and (c) is not applicable, an event or information may be treated as being material if in the opinion of the board of directors of the Company, the event or information is considered material.
3. Any other information/event viz. major development that is likely to affect business, e.g. emergence of new technologies, expiry of patents, any change of accounting policy that may have a significant impact on the accounts, etc. and brief details thereof and any other information which is exclusively known to the Company which may be necessary to enable the holders of securities of the Company to appraise its position and to avoid the establishment of a false market in such securities.

PROCEDURAL GUIDELINES FOR DETERMINATION OF MATERIALITY:

The Company has established an internal sharing of information mechanism for reporting any event/information which may require disclosure so that the event/information can be properly assessed by relevant officials, and a decision can be made regarding its disclosure to the Stock Exchanges by the relevant authority on receipt of reported information.

Under the internal mechanism, Function head (HoD) of each department who are empowered for relevant areas of the Company's operations shall report to CFO and CS of the Company on any event/information which may likely be material or of which the HoD is apprehensive about its materiality.

The event / information should be reported immediately / within the reasonable time after a HoD becomes aware of it. On receipt of communication of event, CFO and CS will, in consultation with Managing Director, wherever required, view and observe its materiality; Materiality will be determined on a case-to-case basis, time basis, depending on specific facts, circumstances, and its likely impact on the affairs of the Company relating to the information/event.

VERIFICATION OF RUMOURS:

The Company shall confirm, deny or clarify any reported event or information in the mainstream media, which is not general in nature and indicates rumours of an impending specific material event or information that are circulating amongst the investing public and provide the current stage of such an event or information. Such a disclosure shall be made as per the timelines prescribed under SEBI Listing Regulations.

DISCLOSURES:

The Company may be confronted with the question as to when an event/information can be said to have occurred. In certain instances, the answer to above question would depend upon the stage of discussion, negotiation or approval and in other instances where there is no such discussion, negotiation or approval required, viz. in case of natural calamities, disruptions, etc., the answer to the above question would depend upon the timing when the Company became aware of the event/information. In the former, the events/information can be said to have occurred upon receipt of approval of Board of Directors.

1. The Company shall disclose all events or information which are material in accordance with the Policy as soon as reasonably possible and in any case not later than the following:
